MARKET OVERVIEW

LAWRENCEVILLE
GEORGIA

The City of Lawrenceville is the second oldest city in Metro Atlanta and serves as Gwinnett's county seat with a population of just over 29,000 citizens. With a youthful median age of 32, Lawrenceville works to preserve its heritage while pushing ahead to ensure excellence for the future.

From state-of-the-art medical, educational and governmental facilities, to thriving business, cultural and recreational opportunities, Lawrenceville serves as home and host to individuals and families who come here from around the globe. Th proximity to Atlanta is a convenience, yet residents and visitors can still find all they desire and need within the city limits.

Lawrenceville is home to one of the premier hospitals in the region, Gwinnett Medical Center. GMC is a non-profit, 500-bed health care network based in Gwinnett County. It comprises two hospitals, plus several supporting medical facilities, with more than 4,300 employees and more than 800 affiliated physicians. The flagship campus of GMC is located in Lawrenceville near the intersection of Highway 316 and Duluth Highway 120.
